

Everyday Student Sentences

- Everyday Student Sentences (Useful & Simple)

1 Basic Greetings

- Hi, how are you?
- What's up?
- How was your day?
- Long time no see!
- See you later.

2 In the Classroom

- Did you understand this topic?
- Can you explain this to me?
- What did the teacher say?
- Can I borrow your pen?
- What's the homework for today?
- Are you done with the notes?
- Which page are we on?
- Can you help me with this question?
- Is the teacher coming?
- Let's study together.

3 With Friends

- Where are you going?
- Are you free after class?
- Let's go to the canteen.
- Did you watch the new movie?
- What are your plans for today?
- Let's sit together.
- Call me when you reach.
- I'll text you the details.
- Wait for me!
- Come with me.

4 Group Work / Projects

- Let's divide the work.
- Who will do this part?
- When should we meet?
- Let's finish it today.
- Can you check this once?
- I'll handle this section.
- We need more time.
- Let's present together.

- 5 Asking for Help

- Can you help me for a minute?
- Can you repeat that?
- I didn't get it.
- What does this mean?
- How do you do this?
- Is this correct?
- Can you show me the steps?

- 6 Everyday Casual Talk

- I'm really tired today.
- I didn't sleep well.
- I'm hungry, let's eat something.
- Today's class was so long.
- I'm feeling bored.
- I love this song!
- Let's take a small break.
- It's too hot today.
- What are you doing later?
- I have so much work today.

- 5 Asking for Help

- Can you help me for a minute?
- Can you repeat that?
- I didn't get it.
- What does this mean?
- How do you do this?
- Is this correct?
- Can you show me the steps?

- 6 Everyday Casual Talk

- I'm really tired today.
- I didn't sleep well.
- I'm hungry, let's eat something.
- Today's class was so long.
- I'm feeling bored.
- I love this song!
- Let's take a small break.
- It's too hot today.
- What are you doing later?
- I have so much work today.

- 7 Polite Expressions

- Thank you so much!
- That's very kind of you.
- Sorry, my mistake.
- It's okay, don't worry.
- No problem, I'll help you.

- 8 Making Plans

- Want to go for a walk?
- Let's meet in the library.
- What time should I come?
- Let's go together.
- We'll finish this tomorrow.

1 Dialogue: Complaining About Someone (Student to Teacher)

- Student: Ma'am, can I talk to you for a minute?
Teacher: Yes, tell me.
Student: Ma'am, he keeps disturbing me during class.
Teacher: What exactly is he doing?
Student: He keeps talking and taking my things without asking.
Teacher: Okay, I will talk to him. Thank you for informing me.
Student: Thank you, Ma'am.

2 Dialogue: Taking a Stand for Yourself (Student to Student)

- Student A: Why did you take my notebook without asking?
Student B: I just needed it for a minute.
Student A: You should ask before taking my things.
Student B: Okay, sorry. I'll ask next time.
Student A: Thank you. Please don't repeat it.

3 Dialogue: Talking to the Teacher (Asking Help / Doubt)

- Student: Sir, I didn't understand this question.
Teacher: Which part is confusing?
Student: This step here... why do we divide here?
Teacher: Let me explain it again.
Student: Thank you, Sir. That makes sense now.

4 Dialogue: Asking Classmate for Things

- Student A: Hey, do you have an extra pen?
Student B: Yes, here you go.
Student A: Thanks! I'll return it after class.
Student B: No problem.

5 Dialogue: Discussing Their Day

- Student A: How was your day today?
Student B: It was good but very tiring.
Student A: Same! We had so many classes back-to-back.
Student B: I know, right? I just want to sleep now.
Student A: Let's take a break in the canteen.

6 Dialogue: Talking About Dance Practice

- Student A: Are you coming for the dance practice today?
Student B: Yes, at 3 pm, right?
Student A: Yes. We need to practice the last step again.
Student B: Yeah, that part is a little tricky.
Student A: Don't worry, we'll get it today.
Student B: Let's give our best!

7 Dialogue: Talking About a Funny Situation

- Student A: Did you see what happened in the assembly today?
Student B: Yes! When the mic stopped working?
Student A: Exactly! And the teacher kept tapping it.
Student B: Everyone was trying not to laugh.
Student A: I almost burst out laughing!
Student B: Same! It was so funny.

8 Dialogue: Asking a Classmate to Stop Disturbing

- Student A: Can you please stop talking? I'm trying to study.
Student B: Oh sorry, I didn't realize.
Student A: It's okay, but I really need to concentrate.
Student B: Sure, I'll be quiet.

Dialogue: Inviting a Friend

- Student A: Hey, want to join me in the library after class?
Student B: Yeah, I have to finish my notes anyway.
Student A: Great, we can study together.
Student B: Perfect, let's go together.

10 Dialogue: Group Discussion for a Project

- Student A: Okay, who will make the presentation?
Student B: I can do the slides.
Student C: I'll collect the information.
Student A: Great, I'll explain it during the presentation.
Student B: Perfect, let's finish it today.

- Dialogue: Student Introducing Themselves to a New Classmate

- Student A: Hi, what's your name?

Student B: I'm Riya. What's yours?

Student A: I'm Aakash. Nice to meet you!

Student B: Nice to meet you too.

Student A: Which school were you in before?

Student B: I was in Delhi Public School.

Student A: Oh nice! If you need any help here, just tell me.

Student B: Thank you so much!

- Dialogue: Students Discussing Homework
- Student A: Did you finish the homework?
Student B: Not yet. What about you?
Student A: I did most of it, but question number 5 is difficult.
Student B: Same! Let's solve it together.
Student A: Good idea!

- Dialogue: Student Stopping Someone Politely
- Student A: Hey, can you please stop pushing?
Student B: Oh, sorry!
Student A: It's okay, just be careful.

- Dialogue: Asking a Friend for Notes
- Student A: Can I borrow your notes for a day?
Student B: Sure, I'll give them to you after class.
Student A: Thank you so much!
Student B: No problem.